Introduction • The ten seconds you're wasting

"The single most shareable moment your product has — the capsule melting into the cappuccino — is happening in someone's kitchen right now and disappearing forever."

Bonus 5's serving card teaches your customer how to enjoy that moment. It was never meant to capture it. That's the gap: every order that could have become content, three new orders, and a repeat customer instead just... ends after one sale.

This kit fixes that with phone-only setups — no ring light, no tripod, no editing app required beyond what's already on your phone.

✓ How to use this. Pick one setup from Section 1 the next time you package an order, shoot it in under two minutes, and pair it with a caption from Section 2. That's the entire system — repeat it, don't overthink it.

SECTION 1 OF 4

15 Photo & Reel Setups

Phone-only. No equipment beyond what's already in your kitchen.

The melt reveal (the moment that sells)

SETUP 1 • OVERHEAD DROP

Shoot straight down at a clear mug of hot milk. Drop the capsule in frame, film for 8 seconds as it melts. This is your highest-converting single shot — use it first.

SETUP 2 • SIDE-ANGLE POUR

Camera at counter height, mug slightly off-center. Pour hot milk over the capsule already in the mug, capture the swirl of chocolate blooming outward.

SETUP 3 • SLOW-MOTION MELT

Use your phone's slow-motion mode. Same overhead angle as Setup 1, but slowed down — makes the shell cracking open feel dramatic.

Product & packaging

SETUP 4 • FLAT LAY, OPEN BOX

Kit box open, capsules arranged by color, shot from directly above on a clean or wood-textured surface.

SETUP 5 • HAND HOLDING ONE CAPSULE

Close-up of a single capsule held between two fingers, soft natural window light, background blurred.

SETUP 6 • BOX REVEAL REEL

Film opening the box from a closed state to fully open, 3-5 seconds, ending on the flat lay from Setup 4.

SETUP 7 • RIBBON CLOSE-UP

Macro-style close-up on the ribbon or seal of a gift kit, shot at an angle with soft light — sells the "gift" feeling.

Lifestyle & context

SETUP 8 • MORNING ROUTINE

Cappuccino mug next to a laptop or book, capsule visible beside it, natural morning light from a window.

SETUP 9 • GIFT-GIVING MOMENT

Kit box being handed from one set of hands to another, or being opened by the recipient — great for gifting-occasion captions.

SETUP 10 • COZY SELF-CARE SCENE

Mug on a blanket or beside a candle, soft warm lighting, capsule half-visible in frame.

SETUP 11 • BEFORE/AFTER GRID

Two-panel image: capsule whole on the left, melted cappuccino on the right. Works great as a static post.

Behind the scenes

SETUP 12 • MAKING PROCESS, HANDS ONLY

Close-up of hands filling or wrapping capsules — no face needed, just the process, builds trust in the handmade quality.

SETUP 13 • BATCH TRAY REVEAL

Wide shot of a full tray of finished capsules before packaging — communicates scale and freshness.

SETUP 14 • FLAVOR LINEUP

All flavors lined up in a row, labeled, shot from above — good for "which flavor is your favorite" engagement posts.

SETUP 15 • PACKING AN ORDER

Overhead shot of a kit being boxed and sealed, ready to ship — pairs well with "your order is on its way" story posts.

30 Ready Captions

Organized by flavor and occasion. Copy, paste, post.

GENERAL / ANY FLAVOR (10)

1. "Drop it in. Watch it melt. That's the whole trick. ☕️ ✨ "
2. "Not a chocolate. Not a coffee. A little bit of both, in one bite."
3. "The best part of my day is watching this happen every single time."
4. "Handmade, hand-wrapped, and gone in one sip."
5. "This is your sign to slow down for five minutes today."
6. "Real chocolate. Real cappuccino. Zero instant-coffee vibes."
7. "One capsule, one mug, one very good five minutes."
8. "The melt is the whole show. Sound on. 🎧 "
9. "Made in small batches so every one actually gets attention."
10. "This is what 'treat yourself' actually looks like."

GIFTING OCCASIONS (8)

11. "The gift that melts hearts. Literally."
12. "Still looking for the perfect thank-you gift? This is it."
13. "Mother's Day sorted. You're welcome."
14. "Because 'thinking of you' deserves better than a text."
15. "The birthday gift that doesn't sit in a drawer."

16. "For the coworker who deserves more than a card."

17. "Holiday gifting, solved in one box."

18. "Say congratulations with something that actually gets used."

SELF-CARE / WEEKEND (6)

19. "Sunday mornings were made for this."

20. "No plans today except this mug and a blanket."

21. "Self-care Sunday, capsule edition."

22. "This is my whole personality on weekends now."

23. "Slow morning, warm mug, one very good capsule."

24. "The five minutes of peace I actually look forward to."

ENGAGEMENT / QUESTIONS (6)

25. "Which flavor are you trying first? 🧐 "

26. "Tag someone who needs this in their life."

27. "Milk temp check — hot enough to melt it fast, or slow reveal?"

28. "Dark, milk, or white chocolate — no wrong answer."

29. "Would you drop it in first or save it for last? 🤔 "

30. "Rate this melt out of 10. Be honest. 😊 "

SECTION 3 OF 4

The Customer-Repost Script

Gets buyers to tag you without feeling like you're asking for a favor.

Send this as a note inside the package, or as a follow-up message 1-2 days after delivery — whichever fits your workflow.

IN-PACKAGE NOTE CARD

"Enjoying the melt? Tag us @[your handle] — we love reposting the best ones, and you might just end up on our page!"

FOLLOW-UP MESSAGE (1-2 DAYS AFTER DELIVERY)

"Hope you're loving your capsules! If you snapped a video of the melt, we'd love to see it — tag us and we might repost it (with credit, of course) 🧡 "

✓ Why this works. It never asks for a review or a sale — it asks to see something fun they probably already filmed. Reposting with credit gives them a reason to actually do it, and every repost reaches a new audience for free.

SECTION 4 OF 4
